

Indian Centre for Space Physics (ICSP), Kolkata was established and registered in 1999 with a view to focus on such areas of Earth science and its relation to the Space. It is a unique research institute in the country. The main objective of ICSP is to fill a big vacuum in this sector to carry out research activities in Earth Science, Ionospheric Science, Astrophysics and their inter-relations. So far, the recurring funds for the skeleton staffs of ICSP and for the office maintenance mainly came from the State of West Bengal. The rest of the support comes from projects funded by MOES, DST and other agencies. ICSP is also affiliated to the University of Calcutta and has successfully produced fifteen Ph.D. students in these important streams of research, many of whom are placed in national and international institutes, thus contributing to the generation of human resource in this field.
