

Topological Discontinuities in the Schwarzschild Spacetime

Gagan S

St Joseph's University, Bangalore, India

A metric for a gravitationally collapsing spherically symmetric body is constructed considering the stress contributions derived from the Penrose singularity theorem. This metric is identified as the Schwarzschild metric outside the body, and later the topological discontinuity of this spacetime is studied.